MANAGEMENT

INVESTMENT POLICY

The fund's target is to reach, over a recommended investment 5-year period, a greater return net of fees than the Thomson Reuters Global Focus Hedged (EUR) Convertible Bond Index in euros, hedged against a foreign exchange risk, the euro being the reference currency with reinvested net coupons. The stock returns may be adjusted by possible foreign exchange hedging costs.

FUND MANAGERS' COMMENT - Arnaud BRILLOIS

During the month of October 2020, Lazard Convertible Global PD H EUR share class returned 0,52% versus 0,33% for its benchmark (Thomson Reuters Global Focus Convertible Hedged EUR). Our equity exposure overweight slightly added to relative performance despite declining global equity markets: the negative impact from our overweight to the US was offset by both our underweight to Europe and our overweight to Asia. Modified duration remained stable over the month, in line with the benchmark, standing at 2.21 versus 2.24. Sensitivity to interest rates had a neutral impact to relative performance. Continued credit spreads widening both in the US and Europe detracted to absolute performance over the month and was neutral to relative performance, we remain more conservative than the index in terms of credit risk. Security selection in Chinese ecommerce and social media as well as healthcare in the US strongly added to relative performance. Selections in US software detracted to relative performance. Over the month, we increased our exposure to tourism and added a new position in European energy.
