INVESTMENT POLICY

The fund's target is to reach, over a recommended investment 5-year period, a greater return net of fees than the Thomson Reuters Global Focus Hedged (USD) Convertible Bond Index in Hong Kong Dollar, hedged against a foreign exchange risk, the Hong Kong Dollar being the reference currency with reinvested net coupons. The stock returns may be adjusted by possible foreign exchange hedging costs.

■ FUND MANAGERS' COMMENT - Arnaud BRILLOIS

During the month of July 2020, Lazard Convertible Global RC H HKD share class returned 5,04% versus 3,54% for its benchmark (Thomson Reuters Convertible Global Focus Hedged in HKD). The fund's equity sensitivity remained stable during the period, standing at 63.0% vs 57.3% for the benchmark at the end of the month. Our equity exposure overweight added to relative performance. Modified duration slightly increased over the month and remains slightly higher than the benchmark, standing at 2.22 versus 2.10. Sensitivity to interest rates had a neutral impact to relative performance. Credit spreads tightening both in the US and Europe was additive to absolute performance over the month and neutral in relative terms. Security selection explains most of the outperformance this month: out of our top ten performers, seven are out of the benchmark. Picks in the US automotive sector, global e-commerce and technology strongly added to relative performance. Chinese social media, US airlines, European consumer discretionary and Energy detracted to relative performance. Over the month, we reduced our exposure to US online retail and semiconductors and increased our exposure to Chinese sportswear, US online travelling services, internet security and investment-grade-rated energy and airlines. We added four new investments in Chinese biotechnology, US healthcare and industrials.
