FUND MANAGERS COMMENT

As new restrictive measures emerged in Europe in early 2021, European equity markets stalled in January. Buoyed by the impending availability of vaccines, the first trading sessions were nevertheless on the rise. This initial optimism was overtaken by the European situation, without impacting all world markets, since oil gained nearly 10% over the month and the 10-year Treasury yield rose by 15bps, for example. In this context, Nordic stock markets ended the month up, and the Nordic small caps significantly underperformed the large caps. The fund outperformed the index, benefiting from the strength in Dustin (Online reseller of IT products and services, Sweden), Valmet (Industrial machinery, Finland), Raisio (Food, Finland) and Atlantic Sapphire (Land-based salmon farming, Norway). It suffered though from the weakness Coor (Facility services, Sweden), BioGaia (Probiotics, Sweden) and Nolato (Polymers, Sweden). Over the course of the month, we have built a new position in Renewcell (Textile-to-textile recycling, Sweden).
