INVESTMENT POLICY

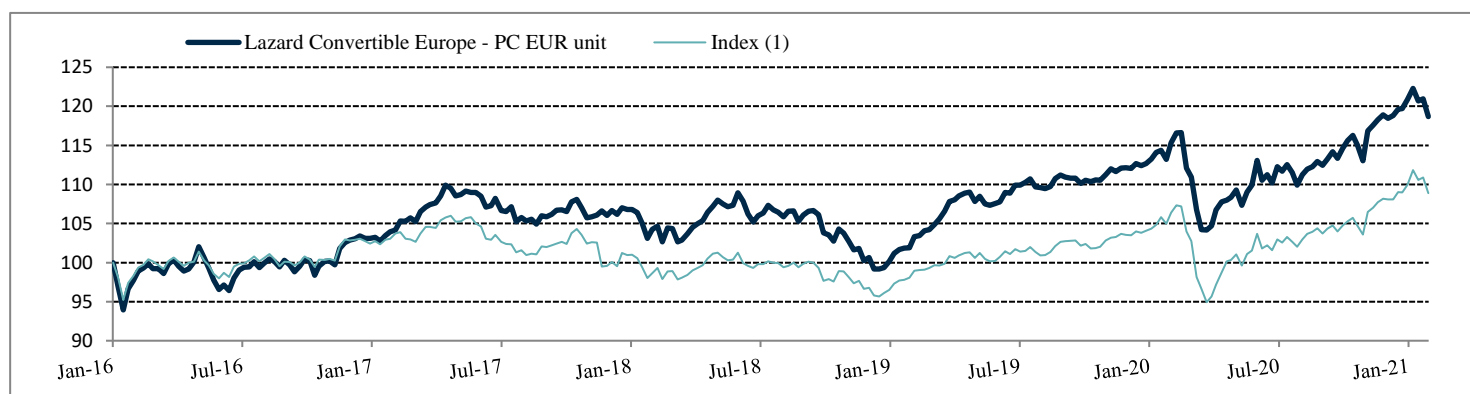

The fund seeks to outperform the Thomson Reuters Convertible Europe index. To attain this objective, the strategy will rely on an active management of interest rate risk (active management of sensitivity), currency and credit risks (based on the securities rating) and on our stock-picking approach. Sensitivity will be managed on a scale of 0 to 7. Portfolio will be composed as follows: 1/ up to 110% maximum of fungible convertible bonds, exchangeable bonds, bonds with equity warrants, corporate and financials traded debt and sovereign debt. The fund will be able to invest in both investment grade and high yield convertible bonds; 2/ up to 10% maximum in French law money-market and bond funds (whether or not UCITS-compliant); 3/ up to 10% maximum in equities resulting from a conversion.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENT - Arnaud BRILLOIS

During the month of January 2021, Lazard Convertible Europe PC – share class returned -1,82% versus -0,98% for its benchmark (Thomson Reuters Convertible Europe Focus). The fund's equity sensitivity slightly decreased during the period, standing at 54.1% vs 48.4% for the benchmark at the end of the month. The fund's equity overweight had a negative relative impact with lower European equity markets. Modified duration increased over the month, and is neutral relative to the benchmark, standing at 2.50 versus 2.48. Interest rate sensitivity was slightly negative to absolute performance and neutral in relative terms. Credit spreads widening, particularly in the high yield space, detracted to the fund's absolute performance and was neutral in relative terms. Security selections in technology, video games and semiconductors in particular, as well as online food delivery services, added to relative performance over the month. Selections in apparel, financial services and our overweight to the aeronautic industry and hotels detracted to relative performance over the month. Over the month, we reduced our exposure to online food delivery services, German real estate, beverages and automotive parts. We increased our exposure to energy, semiconductors, apparel, transportation and construction. The fund held a neutral exposure to all currencies against the index over the month.
